FP2030 Youth Ambassador – Latin America and the Caribbean (LAC) Region

Introduction:

FP2030 is a global partnership dedicated to improving access to sexual and reproductive health services, promoting gender equality, and empowering individuals. To strengthen youth leadership in the LAC region, we are seeking a committed Youth Ambassador passionate about the sexual and reproductive health and rights (SRHR) agenda to play a key role in activities leading up to and during the International Conference on Family Planning (ICFP) 2025.

Role Objective:

The FP2030 Youth Ambassador will be a young leader from the LAC region (18–35 years old) who will actively contribute to the development and implementation of FP2030 activities in preparation for the ICFP and promote meaningful youth participation in these spaces.

Responsibilities:

Participation in virtual events leading up to the ICFP:

- Attend and actively participate in virtual events organized by FP2030, such as webinars, knowledge exchanges, commitment calls, etc.
- Share perspectives and experiences to enhance the content of the sessions.
- Promote youth participation in these events through their networks and contacts.

Contribution to FP2030 team meetings:

- Participate in select FP2030 team meetings, providing a youth and regional perspective, particularly in discussions related to the FP2030 Internal Subcommittee for the ICFP.
- Collaborate on planning and developing activities aligned with FP2030 objectives.

Participation in the youth training program as part of the ICFP:

- Attend training sessions.
- Provide input and proposals based on the needs and realities of the LAC region.
